

Project 42 Digital Pattern for Paulina Ibarra, 939 N. Mariposa Ave., Los Angeles, CA

“Project 42: Shout Their Names”

August 3rd, 2018, 4:08 PM

Booth E11

Taking advantage of the visibility that the Seattle Art Fair offers, Jono Vaughan and her team of collaborators will create an audible and visual memorial action sponsored by Fridman Gallery (Booth E11). At 4:08 PM Vaughan’s collaborators will begin a name reading of the 42 transgender individuals in her ongoing memorial work Project 42. This action will feature a new work, created to host the spirit and memory of Paulina Ibarra a Latina trans woman murdered in LA at 8:04 PM, on August 28th, 2009.

Before witnessing this powerful name reading, catch the closing weekend of “Project 42: Jono Vaughan” at the Seattle Art Museum.
